

37.7 million US workers are uninsured because not all businesses offer health benefits or not all workers qualify for or can afford their share of the health insurance premium.

1

35% of Millennials (e.g. entering workforce in 2007) expect formal office hours rather than flexible schedules.

2

50% of Octogenarians, when asked about their biggest regret, stated something they did NOT do.

3

5000 indigenous cultures are seeking to protect their homelands from corporate and government exploitation, which constitute one-fifth of the land surfaces on earth.

4

90% of US college grads in 2010 will actively seek out employers whose corporate responsibility behavior reflects their own.

5

A 7-year-old Missoula, MT boy sold his rock collection to buy food for those who didn't have enough. He delivered a check for $479.49 to the Missoula Food Bank, enough for 20 carts full of groceries.

6

After the first World Trade Center attacks, John Wallach founded Seeds of Peace. Since 1993, the Seeds of Peace Camp in Otisfield, Maine has graduated over 3,500 teenagers from four global conflict regions.

7

By 2010, the role of HR will undergo fundamental changes. All transactional work will be outsourced, and the new, "heartbeat" HR will be predominantly focused on People Sourcing and Corporate Social Responsibility.

8

Compared to other developed countries, the US is #1 in prison population, teen pregnancies, drug use, child hunger, violence, firearms death, and hazardous waste production.

9

Emily Douglas, as a high school senior, has delivered over 70,000 books and tons of clothing and toys to the children of Appalachia.

10

Every nine seconds, a woman is beaten in the United States.

11

In sub-Saharan Africa, 42 million children do not have access to primary school.

12

In the 20th Century, over 100 million people have been killed in 149 wars.

13

Scrap steel, a major raw material for manufacturing plants has risen by almost 27 per cent or $75-80 a ton in the US in the last two months and over 45 per cent in the last 12-months.

14

Seven out of ten employees view instant communication (Blackberries, cell phones, etc.) as a convenience and not an intrusion.

15

Several Police departments in the US have limited firing range practice due to the price of copper, which has risen from $1/pound to over $4/pound in only 3 years.

16

Since being de-listed as an Endangered Species on Mar. 28, 2008, 37 of the 1,500 Gray Wolves that roam through Wyoming, Montana, and Idaho have been killed.

17

The Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation has an endowment of almost $39 Billion to globally enhance healthcare, reduce extreme poverty, and, in the US, to expand educational opportunities and access to information technology.

18

There is a direct relationship between music and the opiate-like endorphins released by the brain.

19

Today there are 250 critically endangered bird and animal species and equally as many critically endangered languages with fewer than 50 speakers.

20

Total charitable giving by Americans in 2005 is estimated to have been $260.28 billion, an increase of 2.7 percent (when adjusted for inflation) over 2004.

21

USANA partnered with Children's Hunger Fund to provide nutritional supplements to children in the developing world, resulting in a 2000% increase in USANA's share value.

22

23

24

25

26

27